

SUMMER CAMP

We would like to offer our students an opportunity to stay mentally and physically engaged over the summer. This program is for current Kindergarten through current 5th grade students. If you are interested fill out the form below and return it to the Elementary Office by Wednesday, May 6th with your activity fee for each session. There must be at least 6 students in a session for it to happen.

If you decide not to attend a session you must notify the office at least 2 weeks prior to the start of the session or your account will be charged even though you don't attend.
